PROSPECTUS FOR A SELF-DESIGNED MAJOR

- The self-designed major must create an intellectually coherent course of study. Courses must have a relationship to a central intellectual principle. Self-designed majors may be cross-disciplinary, and may incorporate elective, study abroad, internship/practicum, and transfer credits.
- The self-designed major should be no fewer than 34 and no more than 58 credits. Students must complete at least one-half of the selected courses after the major is approved.
- Two faculty sponsors assist a student in preparing a Prospectus; their signatures indicate their approval of the course of study and willingness to serve as advisers.
- Students may complete the prospectus on this form or separate sheets of paper and submit it to the Chair of the Undergraduate Curriculum Committee (UGCC).
