Presents: “March Point” by Native Lens and Longhouse Media

Cody, Nick and Travis, three teens from the Swinomish Indian Tribe, wanted to make a gangster movie or rap video. But instead they were asked to investigate the impact of two oil refineries on their tribal community. March Point follows their journey as they come to understand themselves, the environment and the threat their people face.

The film aired nationally on PBS on November 18th and 23rd, 2008. The film was also featured in a story in the Local Section of the Duluth News Tribune on November 23rd, 2008.

Three young native men finding their voice and sharing it with the world!

Benefit Event for Life House for Youth

Cash/Check Donations will be accepted at the Door.
All event proceeds will benefit Life House, a local non-profit serving low-income, at-risk and homeless youth throughout the Duluth community area and St.
Louis County. Life House has successfully served homeless youth throughout the region since 1991 in a large part due to the welcomed generosity of community members like you.
