Information About Completing This Form

The U.S. Department of Homeland Security requires all applicants to provide documentation of sufficient funding to meet educational and personal expenses for the duration of their F-1 visa status. In order to comply with this regulation, you will need to provide The College of St. Scholastica with proof of finances to cover your tuition, fees, living and personal expenses for your first academic year on campus before you can be issued an I-20. Please note the following when gathering your financial documentation:

- Official proof of funding cannot be more than 3 months old at the time of application.
- Funding needs to be in liquid assets only. The documentation of funding (for applicant, family member & individual sponsor) must be on original bank letterhead stationery with a signature of a bank official in ink. A photocopy of a bank statement, stock statement, savings account statement or certificate of deposit will also be accepted if it is stamped by the issuing bank in original stamp ink and has a signature of a bank official in ink.
- Scholarships awarded by The College of St. Scholastica will count toward the total amount required.
- External scholarships, grants or loans will be figured into the total amount. Original documentation of the award and details must be provided.
- All documentation must be provided in English. It is not required that the amounts be shown in US dollars but the Office of Admissions reserves the right to request this as needed.

- All sponsors (both family and external) are required to sign the bottom of this form. Alternatively, an original letter with a signature in ink from the family member and/or individual sponsor is required. The letter must indicate the amount the family member or individual sponsor is willing to fund per year, and the length of time the funding will be available.
 - If you bring your spouse or other dependents with you to the United States, you must certify you have the additional funding necessary to cover their expenses.
