Wednesday and Thursday, October 9 and 10
For more than one thousand years, Kraków has been considered the academic, artistic and spiritual capital of Poland, serving as the country’s seat of government from 1038 to 1596. Kraków is the only major Polish city to have emerged from World War II unscathed, and its Old Town is a UNESCO World Heritage site whose treasures have been well-preserved through the centuries.

Pass by the former residence of Pope John Paul II, where he lived while Archbishop of Kraków.

On Wednesday evening, attend a presentation on Frédéric Chopin, then enjoy the Master’s works during a specially arranged, private performance in Florianka Hall.
