Baseball - Player

Josh Anderson (Maple Grove, Minn./Osseo High School), a senior from Bethany Lutheran College (Minn.), was named the Upper Midwest Athletic Conference (UMAC) baseball player of the week for the second time this season. In a three-game weekend series against Central College (Iowa), Anderson went 5-for-11 (.455) at the plate with a double, home run, and 3 runs batted in. Josh recorded an impressive .818 slugging percentage for the week and a .545 on-base percentage. The Bethany Lutheran College Vikings came out on top in 2 of the 3 games to take home the bragging rights in the weekend series with Central. For the season, Anderson is hitting .386 with 11 runs batted in.

Baseball - Pitcher

Bethany Lutheran College (Minn.) junior pitcher Brady Grohs (Maple Grove, Minn./Osseo High School) was recognized as the Upper Midwest Athletic Conference (UMAC) baseball pitcher of the week. Grohs recorded a complete-game shutout victory against Central College (Iowa) in last week’s action. In the 2-0 win, Brady allowed just 5 hits and no walks, while striking out 3 batters he faced in 7 innings of work. All 5 hits that he gave up were singles.

Softball - Player

College of St. Scholastica (Minn.) senior catcher Kelly Cordie (Circle Pines, Minn./Centennial High School) collected Upper Midwest Athletic Conference (UMAC) softball player of the week honors. Helping the Saints to a 5-1 week record, including 3 straight victories over #7 Washington University (Mo.), Cordie went 7-for-19 (.368) at the plate with 7 runs batted in, 1 double, 1 home run, and 1 stolen base. Kelly owned 3 of her team’s 4 runs batted in during St. Scholastica’s opening win over Washington University.

Softball - Pitcher

For the second straight week, College of St. Scholastica (Minn.) senior Laura Heise (Richfield, Minn.) was selected as the Upper Midwest Athletic Conference (UMAC) pitcher of the week in softball. In 5 games during the week, Heise produced a 4-1 record on the mound, allowing just 4 earned runs in 30 innings of work. Laura boasted a 0.93 earned run average and tallied 48 strike outs, while throwing 4 complete games and 1 shutout. Three of the 4 victories Heise picked up were against #7 Washington University (Mo.), who entered the week with a 39-game regular season winning streak dating back to last season.
