St. Scholastica Softball Notes – April 19, 2006

- With the third NFCA national poll, the Saints moved up to their highest ranking in program history at No. 16 in the country. With two splits this week in doubleheaders at UW-River Falls and No. 8 UW-Eau Claire, the Saints should continue their climb. This season, St. Scholastica is 4-3 against nationally-ranked teams including a three-game sweep over then-No. 7 Washington (Mo.) University.

- Monday, the Saints saw their 10-game win streak come to an end. They had been approaching their longest win streak in program history, which they set at 12 in 2005.

- With their win in game two at Eau Claire, the Saints did some streak-busting of their own, putting an end to the Blugold’s 18-game win streak.

- This weekend, the team will look to continue their undefeated conference record as they head into the first UMAC Crossover weekend at Martin Luther College. This weekend, the team will look to continue their undefeated conference record as they head into the first UMAC Crossover weekend at Martin Luther College. The last time the Saints lost a UMAC game was nearly two years ago, on April 27, 2004 in a regular season loss at Northland College. Since 2000, the Saints are 78-4 against conference opponents.

- Senior pitcher Laura Heise was named the UMAC Pitcher of the Week for the week ending April 16, the third time this season she’s earned the Pitcher award. Her accomplishments in a week ending April 16, the third time this season she’s earned the Pitcher award. The UMAC recognized her accomplishments in a pair of wins against Hamline last week where she not only added her eleventh no-hitter in a 4-0 game one victory, but gave up just 1 unearned run on only 4 hits in 16 innings of work which included a pair of scoreless innings against Crown College two days later.

- Heise has also moved even closer to the 1000 career strikeout mark. Against River Falls, she added 9 to her total and racked up 9 more the following day at Eau Claire. Heise now sits at 992, and having struck out 184 batters this season alone, she is well on pace to reach 1000. In addition, the All-American boasts an ERA of just 0.49 and has held her opponents to a batting average of .137.
