Essentia Health Clinical Agency Discount 2023-2024

The College of St. Scholastica partners with area health care providers to be able to offer St. Scholastica students a professional clinical setting to apply theoretical knowledge to actual practice. Employees of the clinical site, who are providing professional guidance to students, may be eligible for a CSS tuition discount. The criteria for selecting the recipient of the discount is determined by the clinical site.

Discount Policies and Eligibility Requirements

- The College and the health care provider must have a current educational affiliation agreement;
- The 50% discount on tuition can be used for up to four undergraduate or graduate level credits during Fall, Spring, or Summer semester;
- The discount, combined with other aid, cannot exceed the cost of tuition;
- The discount cannot be used in conjunction with the Benedictine Health Care Facility Employee discount or any other College discount;
- The Clinical Agency Discount is not retroactive;
- A new discount form is required for EACH semester;
- Additional Department or School specific requirements as applicable.
