Admission Requirements

The Master of Education in Curriculum and Instruction Program will consider applicants who:

- Submit a completed Graduate Admissions Application form and nonrefundable fee of U.S. $50. Multiple applications submitted in one envelope require only one U.S. $50 payment.
- Have earned a baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university.
- Submit all official transcripts of baccalaureate and graduate coursework.
- Have earned an undergraduate cumulative GPA of 2.8.
- Submit a completed Computer Competency form verifying skill level in word processing, spreadsheets, database and communication applications.
- Submit a complete Master of Education in Curriculum and Instruction Essay.
- Submit two Graduate Recommendation forms, one from a supervisor.
- Have one year professional experience in the educational field.
- Submit a TOEFL examination or the Michigan Test score which is required of all international applicants and applicants whose primary language is not English. The minimum TOEFL score of 550 on the paper-based test or 213 on the computer-based test is required. The minimum Michigan Test score of 80 is required.

Note: Meeting minimal entrance requirements does not necessarily guarantee admission. Exceptions to minimum criteria may be made at the discretion of the admissions committee.

International Applicants

All applications must be received no later than 90 days prior to the beginning of the starting term. Students will be notified in writing of their admissions status as soon as possible after the committee review.

An international applicant is any candidate who is not a:

- U.S. citizen.
- U.S. permanent resident alien.
- Permanent resident of the Northern Mariana Islands.
- Permanent resident of the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands.

In addition to the program requirements, international applicants must:

- Have a required English language translation of all transcripts, including transcript grading system.
- Submit a completed International Student Finance Statement form with current bank statement(s) showing evidence of adequate funds to cover one year's tuition.

- • Make a minimum deposit of U.S. $1,000. Without this deposit, the Immigration and Naturalization Form I-20A cannot be completed, and the international applicant cannot enter the United States.
- • Submit an affidavit of support (INS Form I-134) for students with U.S. sponsors.
- • Present the applicant's passport and/or current visa in addition to the I-94 card (for applicants already in the United States).
- • Submit documentation of enrollment in a current private or national health insurance plan or enrollment in a St. Scholastica health insurance plan.
- • Submit proof of current immunization for tetanus, diphtheria, and MMR (measles, mumps, rubella).
- • Have a required English language evaluation when the applicant's primary language is not English.

Note: Upon acceptance, international applicants will need to provide information concerning marital status and children in order to complete the INS I-20 form.

U.S. Permanent Resident Alien Applicants

U.S. permanent resident alien applicants must:

- Present an official green card.
