No. 126

This beautiful Barred Owl visited our Duluth campus over Thanksgiving becoming the 126th bird on our local species list. Visit our Catalog of Birds to see more photos and an article on the call of the Barred Owl which was written by our colleague, Dr. Pam Freeman.

Once on the Articles page, select the database you are interested either by finding it in the Best Bets tab or else by clicking on the Databases, A to Z link for an alphabetical listing of all the databases the Library subscribes to. If you are on campus, you will not need a password. Look at the other tabs and boxes for more help with finding the full-text of articles, tutorials, and more.

SOLAR

SOLAR is a database of databases. It searches all our Library resources and even some we don't own. It's a little like the old "feeling lucky" button in Google. But just like Google, or any tool, there is right time to use it. And like Google, the results can be overwhelming. Sometimes using one of our focused, discipline-specific databases can make you luckier.

Exporting Citations to EndNote

(see instructions for EndNote for information on how to use this program)

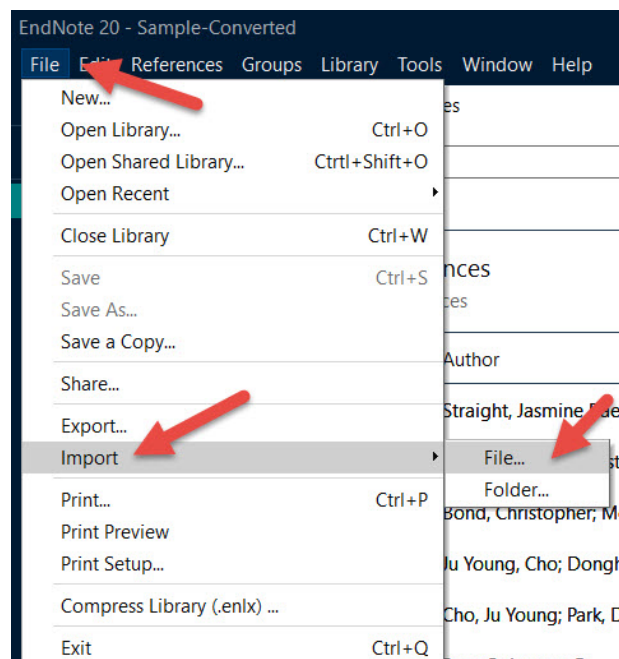

Once you are viewing an article you wish to add to your EndNote library, click on the “C” link to get this pop-up. Then click on the EndNote/Zotero link.

Click on the Save button when you have selected where you wish the file to be saved.

Open the EndNote library you wish to add the citation to and in the File tool bar option, select Import and File...

Click on Choose... to select the file you just saved and click on Import once you have selected it.

Your citations will now automatically be added to your EndNote library.
