No. 126

This beautiful Barred Owl visited our Duluth campus over Thanksgiving becoming the 126th bird on our local species list. Visit our Catalog of Birds to see more photos and an article on the call of the Barred Owl which was written by our colleague, Dr. Pam Freeman.

Once on Articles page, select the database you are interested either by finding it in the Best Bets tab or else by clicking on the Databases, A to Z link for an alphabetical listing of all the databases the Library subscribes to. If you are on campus, you will not need a password. Look at the other tabs and boxes for more help with finding the full-text of articles, tutorials, and more.

SOLAR

SOLAR is a database of databases. It searches all our Library resources and even some we don't own. It's a little like the old "feeling lucky" button in Google. But just like Google, or any tool, there is right time to use it. And like Google, the results can be overwhelming. Sometimes using one of our focused, discipline-specific databases can make you luckier.

Searching all Resources

Main Home Page – The home page has lots of ways to get information including key topics, latest news, the current issue of the American Journal of Psychiatry and more.

To search by a topic, enter a keyword into the search box found at the top of the page. You can only search one topic or concept at a time. Click on the magnifying glass to begin your search.

Advanced search – click on the Advanced Search link at the top in the right-hand corner to have more options for searching including by author, or part of the citation.

Click on the + sign to add more search boxes. You can also add the title where it was published and a date range. Click on the Advanced down arrow to include articles in ahead of print.

Click on the Search button when you are ready.

Results list – results will be displayed by format (journal or book)

Click on limits to the left to find articles from specific authors, publications, topics or article types. Click on the article titles to get more information. Click on the article titles to get the full text of the article.

The screenshot shows a search results interface. On the left, under 'Narrow results', there are filters for 'Author' and 'Publication'. The 'Author' filter lists: Arehart-Treichel, Joan (564); Moran, Mark (465); Levin, Aaron (419); Zagorski, Nick (245); Rosack, Jim (210); and a 'MORE (20)' link. The 'Publication' filter lists: American Journal of Psychiatry (22123) and Psychiatric Services (7410). The main results area shows 'Articles/Chapters (40,267)' and 'Books (4)'. Below this, it says 'RESULTS: 1 - 20 of 40267 depression'. There are links for 'REFINE SEARCH', 'PER PAGE: 20 50 100', and 'SORT: RELEVANCE'. Two article snippets are visible. The first is titled 'Heritability of Perinatal Depression and Genetic Overlap With Nonperinatal Depression' by Alexander Viktorin et al., published in the American Journal of Psychiatry. The second is titled 'Using a Self-Report Depression Scale to Identify Remission in Depressed'.

Abstract

Objective:

The authors investigated the relative importance of genetic and environmental influences on perinatal depression, and the genetic overlap between perinatal depression and nonperinatal depression.

Method:

Analyses were conducted using structural equation modeling for 1) the lifetime version of the Edinburgh Postnatal

Searching Individual Sources

This is a second way to search this database.

Main home page—beginning at the PsychiatryOnline home page, click the title of the book or journal such as DSM-5 you are interested in searching.

For Books, you will see the complete table of contents when you click on Expand All. Then click on any chapter title to view that chapter.

*NOTE: You are not able to search for a specific topic or term within the chapter or entire book.

For Journals, you will be brought into the journal. You can browse current and past issues by clicking on the pull-down arrow for Archive.

Exporting Citations to EndNote

(see instructions for EndNote for information on how to use this program)

Click on the Tools link to the right of the article and then click on Download Citations to add this to your EndNote library.
