*-Jeremy Craycraft will play the tympani this evening in place of Bob Johnson. Sadly, this is not a casual or routine substitution. Bob died yesterday as a result of an accidental but severe injury. We are broken-hearted as would be anyone who knew Bob, and we want to eventually dedicate something special to the memory of this man we all admired. As for the moment, we will do all that anyone can do in the face of such an event - which is to carry on.

Answer, maiden

Deep in thunder roars the tide

Oh, these women

Like the evening's sunset rapture

There was a tiny, pretty bird

How dear, alas, was life together - (Kirsten Miller, soprano)

On Danube's border

Oh, how calm the rivers flows

No, I will not listen to them

Nightingale, you sing so sweet

Each tender leaf is trembling

Ubi caritas et amor - Gregorian Chant

LeAnn House, pianist

Ubi caritas et amor, Deus ibi est. Congregavit nos in unum Christi amor. Exultemus, et in ipso jucundemur. Timeamus, et amemus Deum vivum. Et ex Corde diligamus nos sincero. Ubi caritas et amor, Deus ibi est. Simul ergo cum in unum congregamur: Ne nos mente dividamur, caveamus. Cessent iurgia maligna, cessent lites. Et in medio nostri sit Christus Deus. Amen.

Where charity and love are, God is there. Christ's love has gathered us into one. Let us rejoice and be pleased in Him. Let us fear, and let us love the living God. And may we love each other with a sincere heart. Where charity and love are, God is there. As we are gathered into one body, Beware, lest we be divided in mind. Let evil impulses stop, let controversy cease, And may Christ our God be in our midst. Amen.

Black is the Color of My True Love's Hair - arr. Victor C. Johnson
(b.1978)

Aaron Halverson, clarinet

The Appalachian Folk tune, "Black Is the Color of My True Love's Hair," is likely to have been passed on from the Anglo-Celtic tradition. Collected in 1916 in Southern Appalachia by Cecil Sharp, this tune likely has many variations as folk songs belonging to the common people of a nation or region were passed down orally from generation to generation.

What Wondrous Love - arr. Axel Theimer (b.1946)

Celtic melodies played an important role in Appalachian folk and spiritual music in the late 1800's. The popular hymn tune "Wondrous Love" was first published in 1853 in William Walker's "Southern Harmony" as a prayer of thanksgiving.

In The Bleak Mid-Winter - arr. Victor C. Johnson

Victor C. Johnson set the haunting melody for this Christmas Anthem by augmenting the beloved Rosetti text with rich and colorful harmonies. You will hear additions to the original melody which bring in a contemporary feel to the work.

Fac ut ardeat - Giovanni Pergolesi (1710-1736)

Fac ut ardeat cor meum, in amando Christum Deum ut sibi complaceam.

Make my heart burn with the love of Christ, the God, that I may be pleasing to Him.

Sanctus from Mass for Many Nations - Rupert Lang (b.1948)

This piece was originally commissioned by the Christ Church Cathedral in Vancouver, BC. In keeping with their belief that “all are welcome in this place, Lang set each movement of “Mass for Many Nations” to reflect a separate aspect of the global community, “Sanctus” representing Latin influences.

Dance on My Heart - Allen Koepke (b. 1939)

Dance on My Heart is a fusion of madrigal and contemporary styles that tells the story of three men and one woman. She gets to choose between brawn and beauty, riches, or a “faithful companion...”

I Am Not Yours - David N. Childs (b.1941)

With a text by Sara Teasdale, “I Am Not Yours” speaks of a person who is loved but cannot love in return.

I am not yours, not lost in you, not lost, although I long to be lost as a candle lit at noon, lost as a snowflake in the sea. You love me, and I find you still a spirit beautiful and bright, yet I am I, who long to be lost as a light is lost in light. Oh plunge me deep in love
-- put out my senses, leave me deaf and blind, swept by the tempest of your love, a taper in a rushing wind.

Überlebensgroß - Stephen Hatfield (b.1956)

Jeremy Craycraft, Chris Belich, Patrick Fischer and Brady
Kamphenkel, percussion

Überlebensgroß, which means “larger than life,” pays tribute to the strength, sweetness and savviness of women’s voices through a montage of styles ranging from Jerez Flamenco to 1920’s flapper.

Music Down in My Soul - arr. Moses Hogan (1957-2003)

The Twin Ports Choral Project

Call to Remembrance - Richard Farrant (1530-1580)

Farrant was a 16th-century Anglican composer best known for his Composition of early English Anthems. “Call to Remembrance”

Emphasizes late-Renaissance harmonies and textures.

Ubi Caritas - Ola Gjeilo (b.1978)

Ubi carita et amor, Deus ibi est. Congregavit nos in unum Christi amor. Exultemus, et in ipso jucundemur. Timeamus, et amemus Deum vivum. Et ex corde diligamus nos sincero. Ubi caritas et amor, Deus ibi est. Where charity and love are, God is there. Christ's love has gathered us into One. Let us rejoice and be pleased in Him. Let us fear, and let us love the living God. And may we love each other with a sincere heart. Where charity and love are, God is there.

O vera digna hostia - Tarik O'Regan (b.1978)

O vera digna hostia, per quam fracta sunt tartara, redempta plebs captivata, reddita vita praemia! Amen. O Thou from whom hell's monarch flies, O great, O very sacrifice thy captive people are set free, and endless life restored in Thee! Amen.

Sweetheart of the Sun - Eric Barnum (b.1979)

"Sweetheart of the Sun" is set to a text taken from the 19th-century poem, Ruth, inspired by the dramatic love story of Ruth and Boaz in the Old Testament.

Wade in de Water - arr. Allan Koepke (b.1939)

This spiritual was sung by Harriet Tubman as a warning to runaway slaves, urging them to abandon the path and move into the water. Travelling along the water's edge or across a body of water would throw dogs and their keepers off the scent. This harmonically complex arrangement of "Wade in de Water" uses a variety of textures to emphasize the text "God is gonna trouble de water."

If Ye Love Me - Thomas Tallis (1505-1585)

Church reform in England during the 1500's required that the choral music be brief and succinct. "If ye love me" is the classic example of the English anthems that grew from this restructuring: mainly homophonic, but with brief moments of imitation.

Il bianco e dolce cigno - Jacob Arcadelt (1507-1568)

Il bianco e dolce cigno cantando more, et io piangendo giungo al fin del vivermio. Strano e diversa sorte ch'ei more sconcolato, et io moro beato. Morte, che nel morire Mi empie di gioia tuto e di desire. Se nel morir altro dolor non sento di mille morte il di sarei contento. The white and lovely swan dies singing. And crying I reach the end of my life. Strange is it that the swan dies without comfort and that I die joyfully. A death that fulfills me with happiness and longing because I don't feel other misery (when I die) I would be happy to die a thousand deaths a day.

She Walk in Beauty - Eric Barnum (b.1979)

With a text by Lord Byron, this piece won the 2003 Chanticleer Choral Composition Competition Award. Barnum uses the contrast of light and dark in both the text and the texture to portray a multi-faceted love.

A Maiden is in a Ring - Hugo Alfven (1872-1960)

This Swedish folk tune tells a light-hearted tale about the fickleness of young love. The harmony of this piece warns of the craziness that will ensue, and the memorable dancing melody is sung by each voice part conveying a different character and mood for each verse.

Amor de mi Alma - Z. Randall Stroepe (b.1953)

Yo no naci, sino para quereros; Mi alma os ha cortado a su medida; Habito del alma misma, del alma misma os quiero. Escrito esta en mi alma vuestro gesto; Yo lo leo tan solo que aun de vos me guardo en esto. Quanto tengo, confieso yo de veros; Y por vos naci, por vos tengo la vida, Habito del alma misma os quiero. Y por vos e de morir, Y por vos muero. Por vos. I was born to love only you; My soul has formed you to its measure; I want you as a garment for my soul. Your very image is written on my soul; Such indescribable intimacy I hid even from you. All that I have, I owe to you; For you I was born, for you I live, for you I must die, and for you I give my last breath. For you.

Text: Garcilaso de la Vega (1503-1536)

Worthy to be Praised - Byron Smith (b.1960)

Keep your hand on the Plow - arr. Joseph Jennings (b.1954)

“Keep your hand on the plow” comes with dozens, perhaps hundreds, of different sets of verses. In this arrangement by Joseph Jennings, the soprano solo will be sung by the CSS Women's Choir with the CSS Chamber Choir and friends providing the accompaniment!

col-lab-o-rate [kuh~lab~uh~reyt]: Collaboration is inherent in the music making process. This semester, The College of St. Scholastica Choral Ensembles have focused on exploring and engaging in musical collaboration by joining forces with local musicians, community members, and choirs from around the state. The choirs took part in several musically and spiritually rewarding collaborations including the ACDA-MN Men's/Women's Festival at St. John's University, singing for the Program for Aid to Victims of Sexual Assault Art Auction, singing at Mass at St. Michael's Catholic Church and Holy Rosary Cathedral, a visit by Philip Brunelle and VocalEssence, and joining forces with our own CSS musicians. This afternoon, we will share with you our collaborative efforts that have taken us on this semester's musical journey. We hope that you will find the variety of this collaborative effort to be musically rewarding!
